Congressional Candidate Signs Taxpayer Protection Pledge

James Brodbelt Harris (R-OH) signs the Taxpayer Protection Pledge

WASHINGTON, D.C. – James Brodbelt Harris, a Republican vying for Ohio's 18th Congressional District seat, recently signed the Taxpayer Protection Pledge sponsored by Americans for Tax Reform (ATR). The Pledge commits signers to "oppose any and all efforts to increase the marginal income tax rates for individuals and/or businesses ... and oppose any net reduction or elimination of deductions and credits, unless matched dollar for dollar by further reducing tax rates."

ATR has offered the Pledge to all candidates for federal office since 1987. To date, President George W. Bush, 46 U.S. senators, and 222 members of the U.S. House of Representatives have signed the Pledge. Additionally, six Governors and over 1,260 state legislators have signed the Pledge as well.

"America needs leaders who are committed to protecting taxpayers, and signing our Pledge demonstrates that kind of leadership," said Grover Norquist, president of ATR.

"By signing the Pledge, James Brodbelt Harris demonstrates allegiance to hard-working taxpayers nationwide, as well as dedication to taxpayers in Ohio. I applaud James for the leadership and dedication he showed by signing the Pledge."

"I strongly encourage every candidate for federal and state elective office to sign the Pledge," Norquist continued.

Copies of the Pledge are available at www.ATR.org or by calling (202) 785-0266.

Americans for Tax Reform is a non-partisan coalition of taxpayers and taxpayer groups who oppose all tax increases. For further information, contact Christopher Butler by phone or at cbutler@atr.org
